Iowa Fine Arts Education Summit: In Review

The second biennial Iowa Fine Arts Education Summit, co-presented by the Iowa Arts Council, Iowa Department of Education and Iowa Alliance for Arts Education, was held virtually on June 17. This year's summit explored how fine arts educators can deepen social and emotional learning (SEL) connections within arts education.

Many speakers and more than 200 participants, including K-12 teachers and education professionals, addressed issues related to access, inclusion, healing and equity, which impact student learning, engagement and wellness.
